The National Security Classification Authorities for the Office of the DDA have been reviewed in accordance with your note of 18 October 1974. As a result of that review, it has been determined that [redacted]

[redacted] no longer require classifying authority. Action will be taken to have such authority deleted. The question as to whether or not [redacted] continues to require classifying authority we leave to you.

The classification authority required by Mr. [redacted] should be at the Secret level and action will be taken to have his current authority reduced from Top Secret to Secret.
